

The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Sunnyvale presents:

The Best BBQ and Auction EVER

When: Saturday, June 12, 12:00–3:00 p.m.

Where: The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Sunnyvale/
Congregational Community Church campus, 1112 South
Bernardo Ave. at Remington, Sunnyvale, CA, 94087

What:

- Lunch featuring barbecue sandwiches from Armadillo Willy's famous Road Hog — your choice of brisket, chicken, or Boca burger — plus soft drinks, additional vegetarian options, salads, and desserts

- Face painting and games for kids
- A silent auction of amazing services and beautiful items — many of them handmade — donated by local businesses as well as members and friends of UUFS
- A live auction featuring some of our most fabulous items

Cost (includes lunch, games, face painting): $15/adults & youth, $5/children 10 and under

RSVP: UUFSauction@gmail.com (please respond so we'll have enough food for everyone!)

Pay: at entry

Meet your neighbors!

Bid in the auction!

Support UUFS!

Have fun!

Eat lunch!

About UUFS:

The purpose of our Fellowship is to be a community and home for open-minded people who seek spirituality and truth. We celebrate . . .

- life
- ethical values
- diversity
- justice tempered with compassion

We strive to provide . . .

- a caring extended family
- an active liberal religious voice
- spiritual growth
- intellectual stimulation
- traditions for young and old

We invite you to join us.